Rowbotham & Company LLP announces Alliance with TDrive Partners Resulting in Enhanced Risk Assurance and Advisory Services

May 1, 2009

Rowbotham is pleased to announce its alliance with TDrive Partners to provide enhanced risk assurance and advisory services. The alliance expands the firm's ability to provide comprehensive operational, financial and technology risk assurance and IT governance services to its clients.

TDrive Partners is a professional services firm that assists companies with requirements for specialized technology risk assurance and IT governance services. The firm specializes in assessing technology risk challenges and provides expert solutions to mitigate risks. TDrive's leadership has comprehensive experience in servicing Bay Area and Silicon Valley firms. For more information about TDrive Partners visit www.tdrivepartners.com or contact Toma Ramirez.

Rowbotham can help clients with the assessment of their technology infrastructure and processes to determine IT strategic plans, and identify the procedures organizations should implement to support the business, the associated risks, and the resources required to meet corporate strategies. In addition, we provide a comprehensive approach in assessing a company's technology infrastructure, business systems and processes to ensure compliance with regulatory requirements, best practices, and internal risk and control needs.
